

If you intend to run the negative commentary about John Kerry just days before the election, it is only fair that you also run the negative about President Bush, also. I would like to see you air the press conference Bush had after he and Cheney met with the 911 Commission, I believe in March. This would show that you are being fair to all parties concerned. Thank you.